

Laly Llama

Walking in Someone Else's Shoes 🦶❤️

Empathy is like having a special set of eyes. It helps you see when someone else might be struggling or tired. Imagine you are riding on a crowded train. You are sitting down, but then you see an elderly person, a pregnant woman, or someone with a physical disability standing up.

At that moment, you can practice empathy! Think about how their legs might feel tired or how hard it is to keep their balance while the train moves. By offering your seat, you are saying, "I care about you." This act of kindness is called being respectful. It shows that you are a Community Helper. When we look out for each other, every journey becomes a happy adventure!

Reading Comprehension Questions:

- . What does it mean to have "special eyes" for empathy? .....
- . Why might a train ride be difficult for some people? .....
- . How do you feel when you act as a "Community Helper"? .....